

Rule Change -

Thursday, 23 September 2010 12:11

Beginning in 2012, earnings at the American Championship Show will count toward the subsequent ride year's eligibility for horse and rider. As per current rule, earnings won at the American Championship Show will not affect class standings in determining year end world champions and top ten placings.